Let your imagination soar

Journey overview

Embark on an incredible adventure among the rich wildlife and magnificent landscapes of Botswana. Your journey begins in the Okavango Delta, the largest inland delta in the world. This remarkable environment constantly adapts and changes with the ebb and flow of the floodwaters that seasonally inundate large portions of the delta. It is a place where you can wonder at the antics of wild dog in the morning and cast a line for tiger fish in the afternoon, wake in the dappled shade of a forest and enjoy dinner beneath the boughs of a massive baobab at full moon.

You then end your adventure in the magnificent expanse of the Kalahari Desert, a not-to-be-missed attraction when embarking on a Botswana safari. Considered to be more of a semi-desert, the Kalahari encompasses an array of habitats, from grasslands to scrubland to savanna. Throughout the reserve, travellers are reminded of a more bountiful period in Kalahari history, one where rain fell in abundance and temperatures less extreme. Nowadays, fossil riverbeds crisscross the reserve.

What we love about this journey

- The mysterious Channel which flows and dries up seemingly unrelated to the rainfall
- Treading in the tracks of the Delta wildlife on a nature walk, breathing in the scent of crushed wild grasses
- Total isolation under a blanket of stars in the Kalahari Desert

Highlights of this journey

- Game Drives and Guided Walking Safaris at andBeyond Xaranna Okavango Delta Camp, andBeyond Sandibe Okavango Safari Lodge and The Lodge at Feline Fields
- Seasonal mokoro (water levels dependent) at andBeyond Xaranna Okavango Delta Camp
