Private half day tour of Marrakech

Start : 9:30AM.

Finish : approximately 1PM.

*Lunch at Jardins de Lotus (will be paid directly by the guests)

Djemaa El Fna Square - Koutoubia Mosque (outside) - Merdersa Ben Youssef - Dar Al Bacha Palais

The Pearl of the South... The moment the traveller sets foot in Marrakesh, he is awestruck by the contrast in colours - the ochre of its adobe city walls, and its bougainvillea- covered exteriors, from behind which great bouquets of palm trees and lush greenery burst forth. A magnificent array of architecture set against the snow-capped peaks of the High Atlas Mountains, beneath a brilliant blue sky that reveals the city's true nature - a luxuriant, sun-soaked oasis, heady with the scent of the jasmine and orange blossom that adorn its gardens.

The monuments included are indicated as information. In case of exceptional closure of one of the monuments, it will be replaced by another of equivalent level. Our guides also adapt the choice of monuments according to the interest of the exhibitions of the period.

Private trendy shopping tour

Start : 14:30AM.

Finish : approximately 6PM.

The Marrakesh souks are still powerfully attractive to the visitors. This explosion of colours, scents, these rays of light which subtly envelop thousands of objects or glittering fabrics.

Two steps away from there, a few more trendy shops recently opened. The ochre city has always been a link between tradition and modernity. Your personal shopper will show you her favourite addresses in the medina and in the modern city Gueliz.

Many artists, stylists, designers have decided to live and work in Morocco.

Yves Saint Laurent Street, facing the Majorelle gardens, is a true new nest for talented creators.

A trendy lunch in a brand new one concept store of Sidi Ghanem, must-see neighborhood if one wants to discover another Marrakesh, moving with the times. Showrooms, workshops, lofts, studios, art galleries, stores, leave their doors wide open to the delight of the curious minds and contemporary creation fans.
