

escalés
SIGNATURE

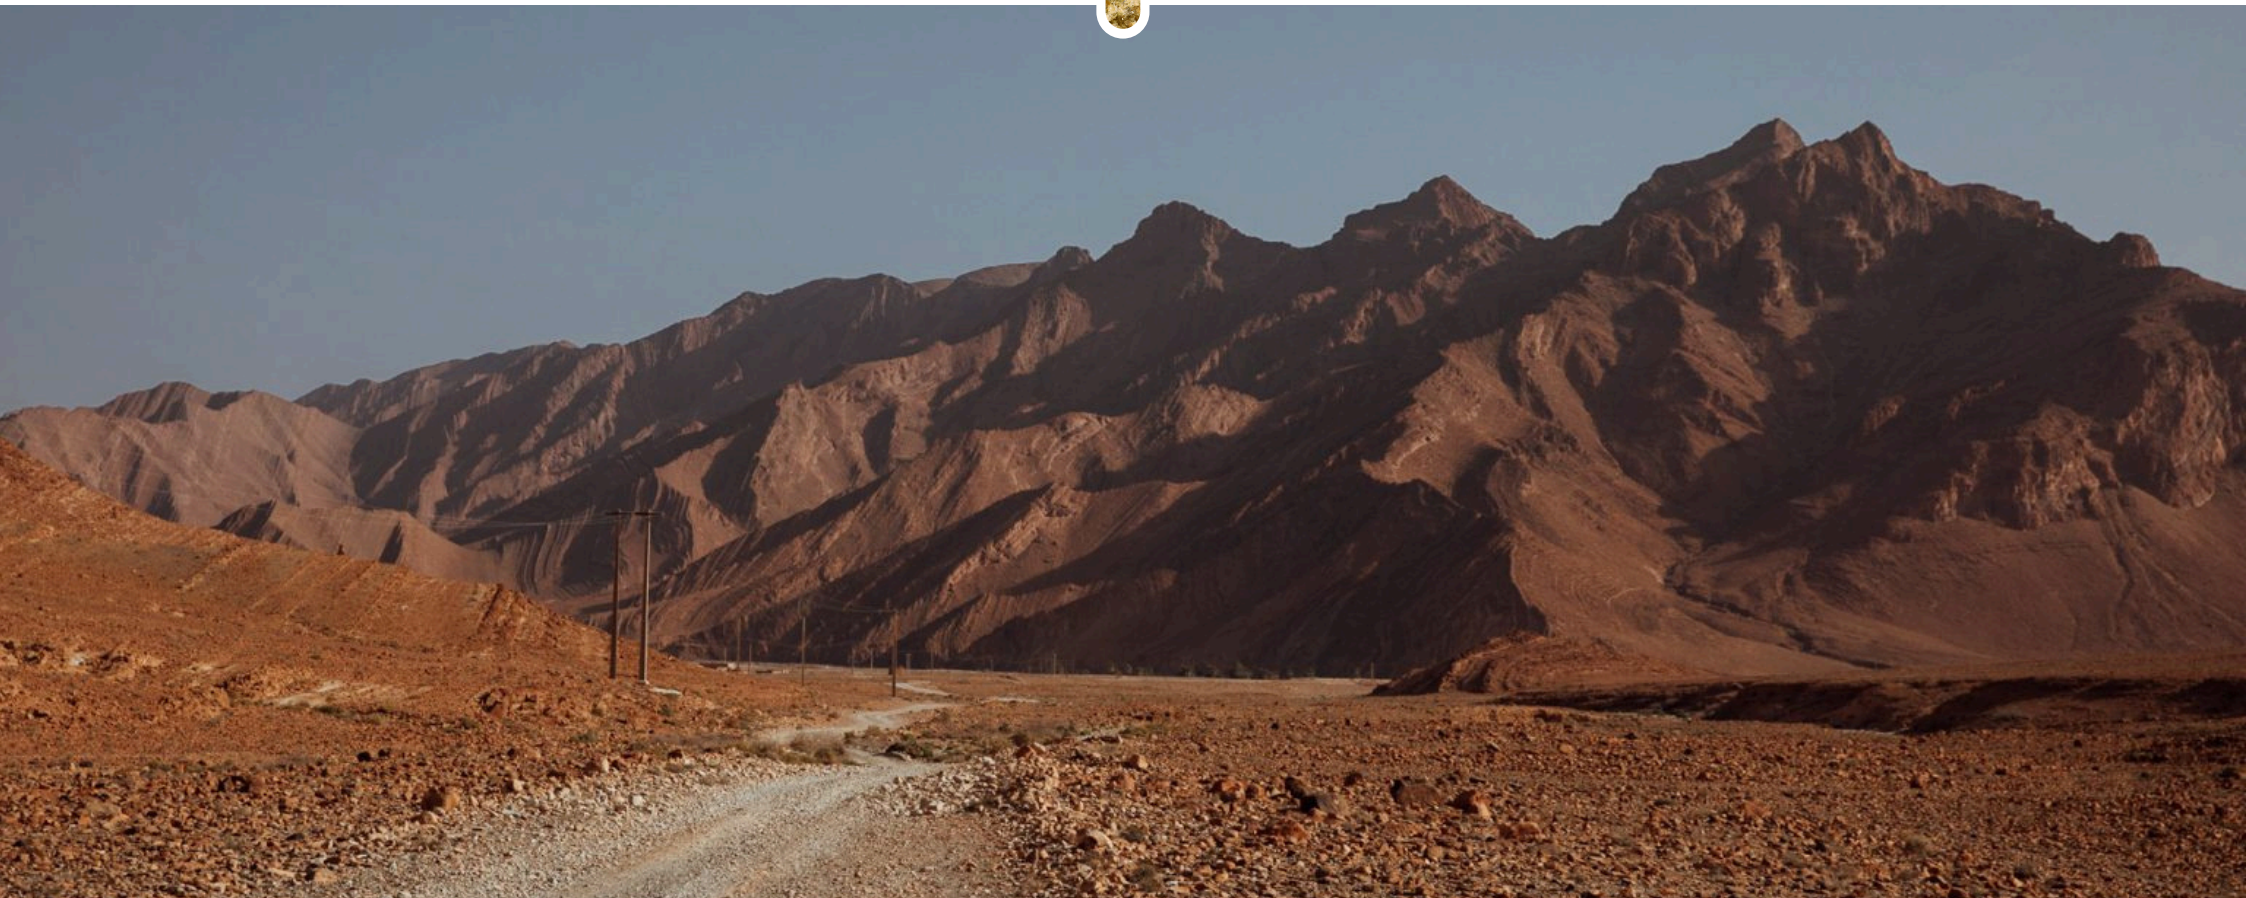

High jewellery of travel

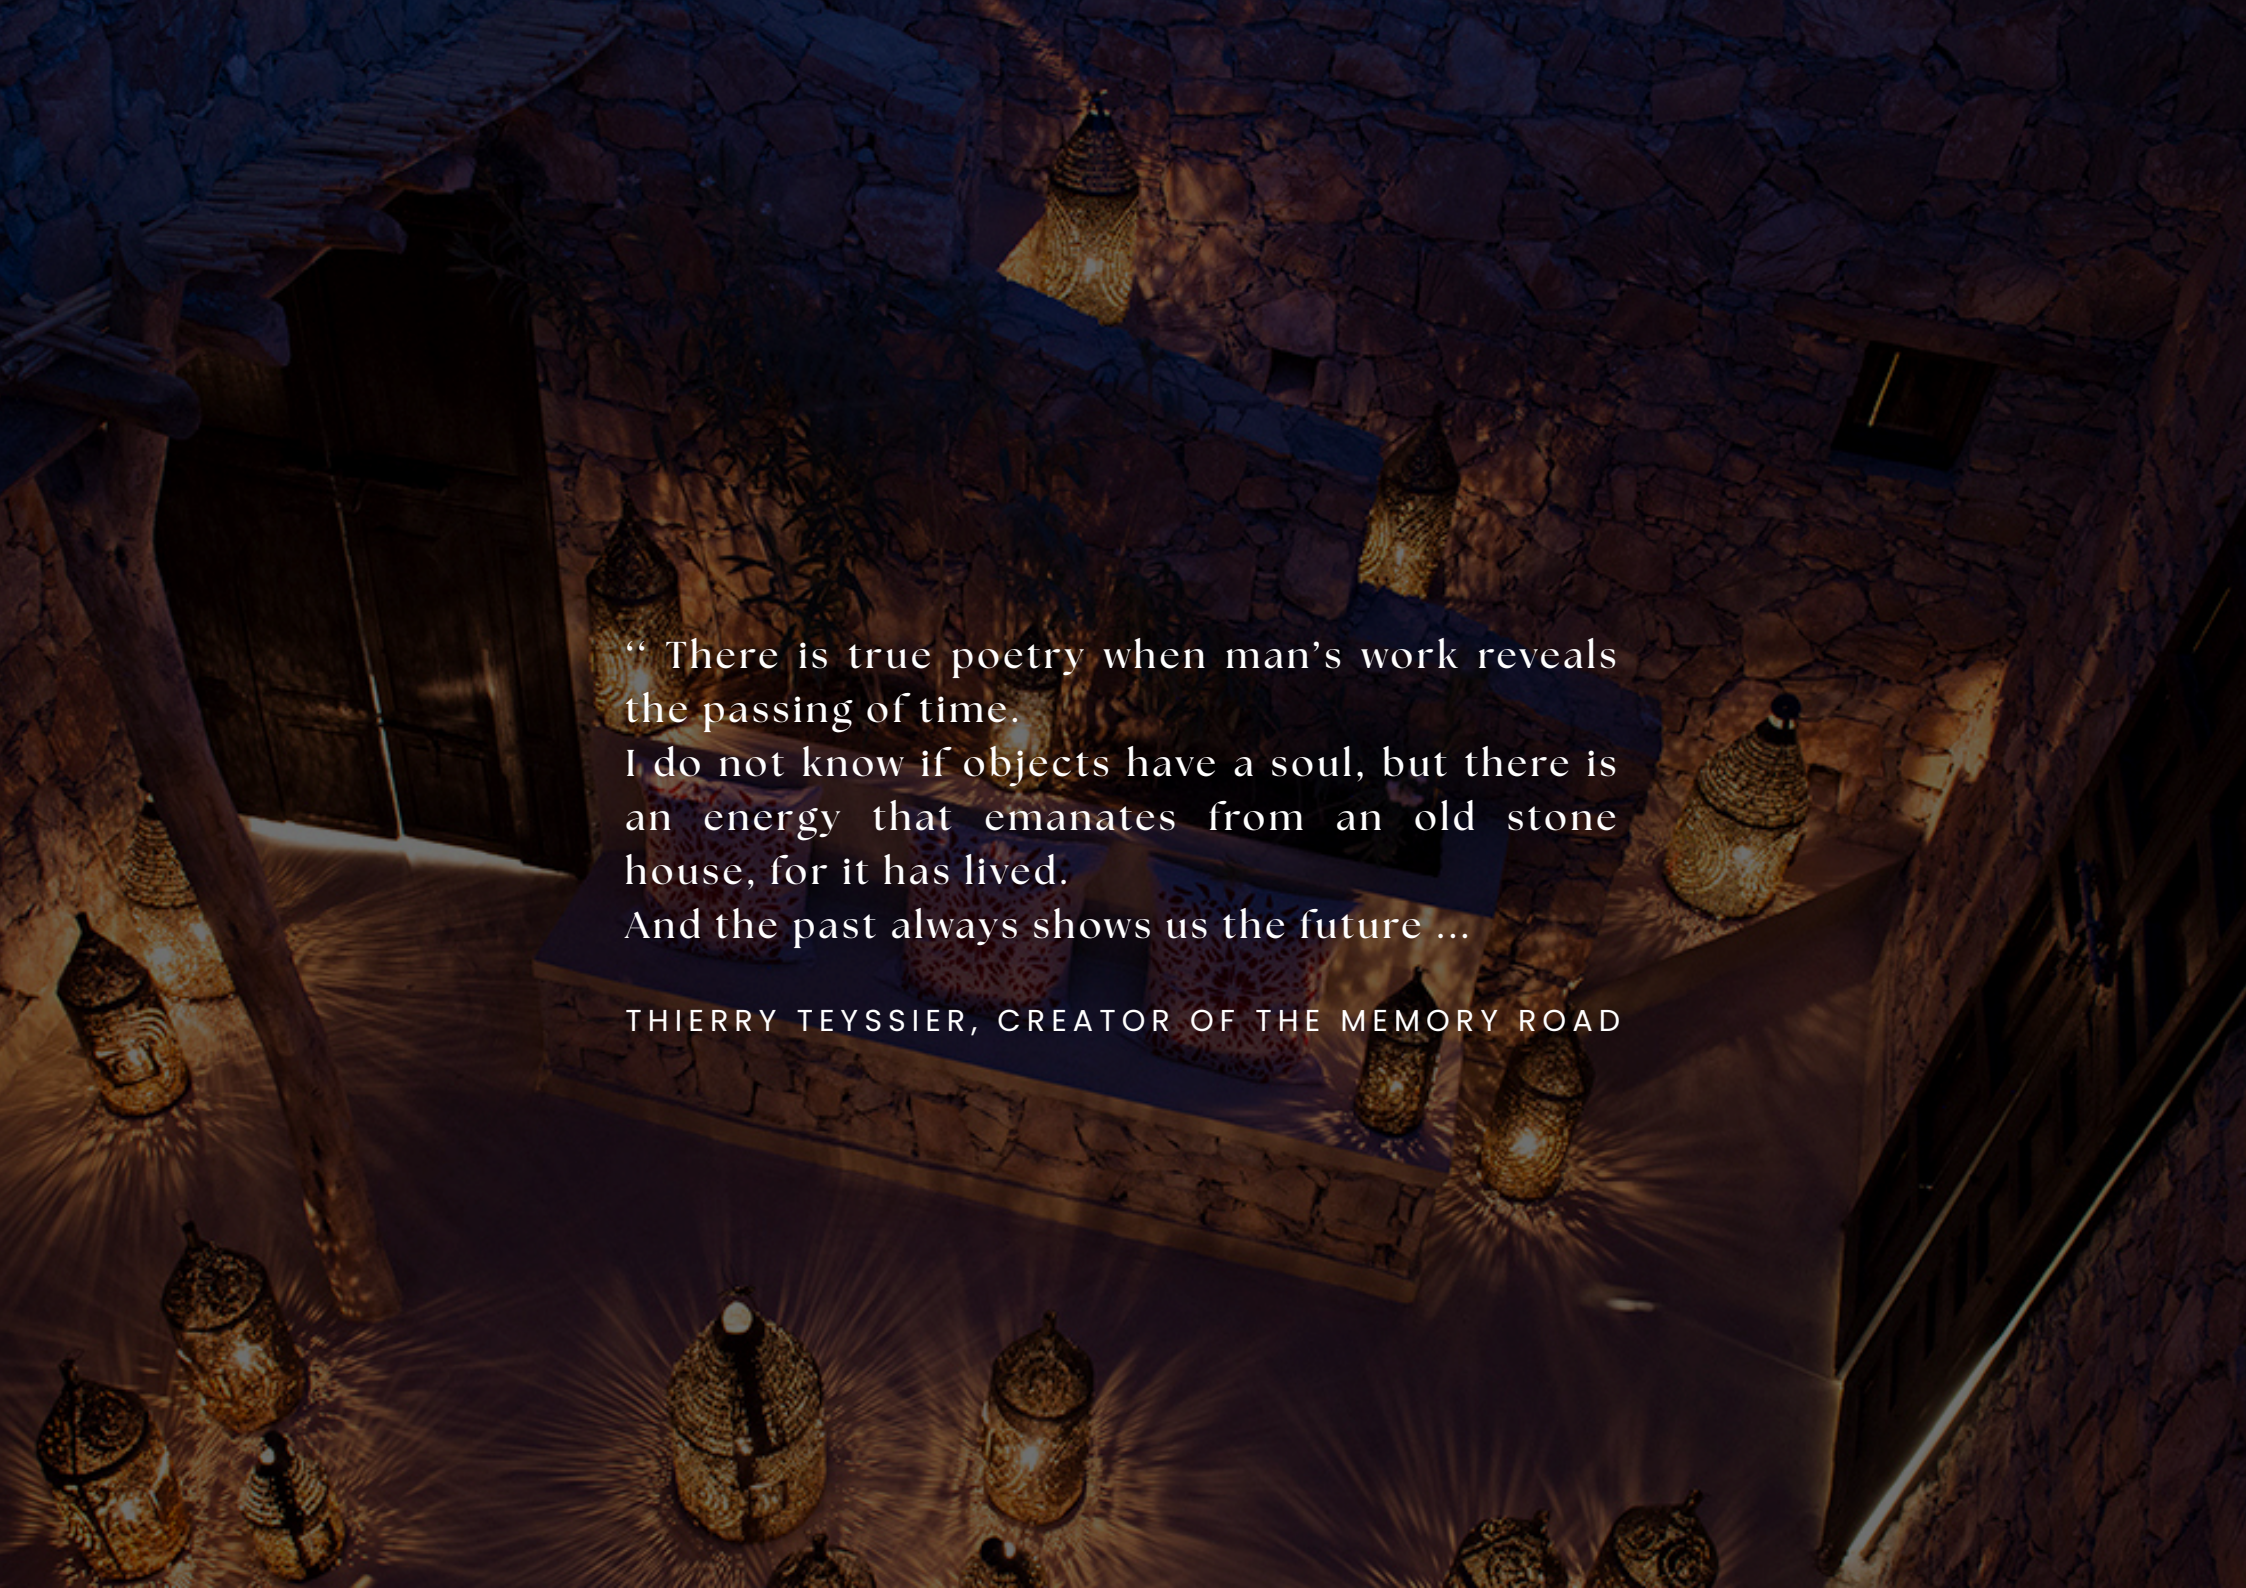

— MOROCCO —

The Memory Road

GLAMPING COLLECTION - DESERT

The image shows a rustic interior with rough-hewn stone walls and a dark wooden door on the left. A wooden beam runs diagonally across the frame. Several ornate, glowing lanterns are placed on the floor and on a low stone ledge. The lighting is warm and atmospheric, creating a sense of history and mystery.

“ There is true poetry when man’s work reveals the passing of time.

I do not know if objects have a soul, but there is an energy that emanates from an old stone house, for it has lived.

And the past always shows us the future ...

THIERRY TEYSSIER, CREATOR OF THE MEMORY ROAD

Living the time

There are roads that connect places, and then there are those that connect souls ...

The Southern Route is one of those journeys measured in the light you pass through, the silences shared, the inspiring encounters and the landscapes contemplated.

Embrace the rhythm of the nomads.
Slow down.
Catch your breath.

“ Every little gesture seems to say :
stay a little longer...

Luxury is never ostentatious here. It is revealed in simplicity, in the exclusivity of the moment, in the attention to detail, and in that rare sense of hospitality that makes you feel as a member of the family ...

Where the earth breathes slowly,
and every path leads inward.

Thierry Teyssier has envisioned a five-stop itinerary in southern Morocco to awaken the five senses of travelers...

The House of Argan Trees

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Located in a remote village named Azrarag, this white stone house reveals a unique perspective on the argan tree valley near Agadir.

“ For an instant, it felt as though this place had always been ours ...

The House of Argan Trees

GLAMPING COLLECTION

2 Bedrooms

2 Bathrooms (showers)

Air conditioning & fireplace

The House of Argan Trees

GLAMPING COLLECTION

From Garden Paths to Sunset Skies ...

Enjoy a gentle walk through the valley alongside a local host and discover the rhythms of everyday life.

Visit his vegetable garden and learn about the Moroccan herbs that shape both traditional cuisine and ancestral remedies.

Continue with a stop at a women's cooperative to discover the craftsmanship behind the making of Argan oil.

As the day comes to an end, gather for a candlelit dinner overlooking the valley, as the sunset paints the landscape below.

“ On the heights, time dissolves into the horizon, as though the earth were seen through the eyes of the sky ...

The village of Tizkmoudine

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Dating back at least to the 14th century, the village of Tizkmoudine was abandoned some 50 years ago. ...

You will discover two original homes in the heart of Moroccan ancestral culture.

“ We were invited into something that had already existed for a long time ...

The village of Tizkmoudine

GLAMPING COLLECTION

These rooms, devoid of electricity, are softly lit by candles and lanterns, with a wood stove.

The village of Tizkmoudine

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Echoes of the Past ...

Wander through the six hundred year old village and discover its beautifully restored mosque and ancestral granary nestled within the kasbah.

As evening falls, gather around local flavours accompanied by the traditional music and chants of the region.

Wake with the village and learn the ritual of preparing traditional bread for breakfast while discovering the different varieties of tafarnout. Continue through the oasis and follow the ingenious network of aqueducts that has sustained life here for generations.

Meet the women leading the local cooperatives and preserving the traditions that continue to shape village life today.

“ Tizkmoudine feels untouched by time, as though the past had never truly left. ...

The Red House

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Located near a matriarchal village, this house built in traditional red stone offers a stopover in a timeless landscape surrounding mountains of the Small Atlas (1.5 hours from Tizkmoudine).

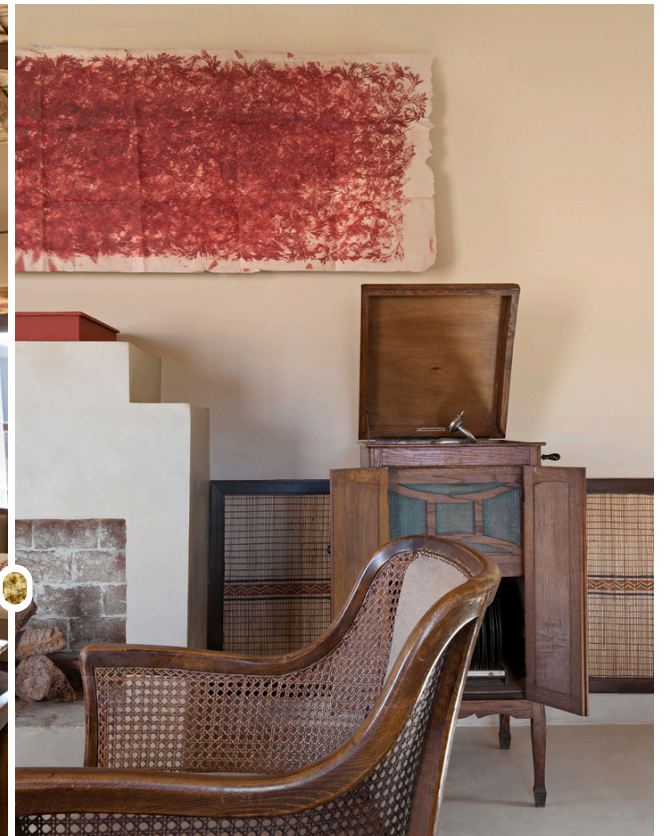

The Red House

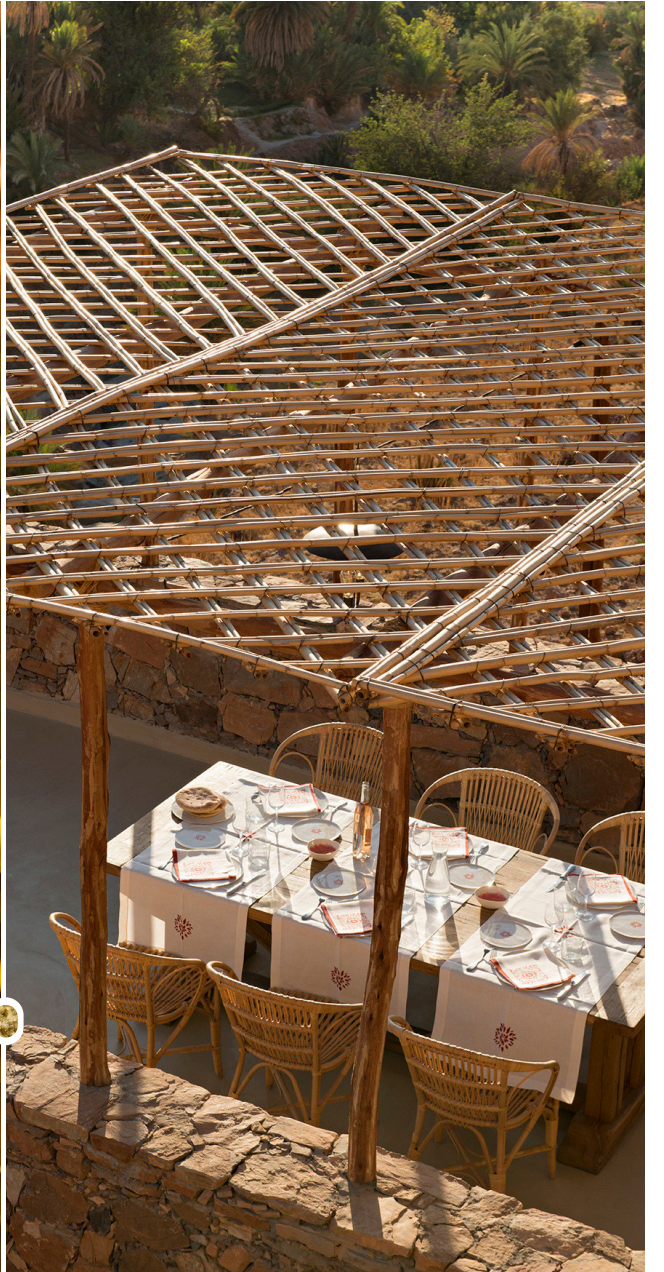

GLAMPING COLLECTION

2 Bedrooms

2 Bathrooms (showers)

Air conditioning & fireplace

The Red House

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Where the mountains keep their secrets ...

Wander through the village and share a moment with a local family to discover traditions passed down through generations.

Follow the intricate water channels that continue to sustain life across the valley and uncover the quiet ingenuity behind local farming practices.

Continue with gentle walks among the striking red rock formations of the Small Atlas, where changing light transforms the landscape throughout the day.

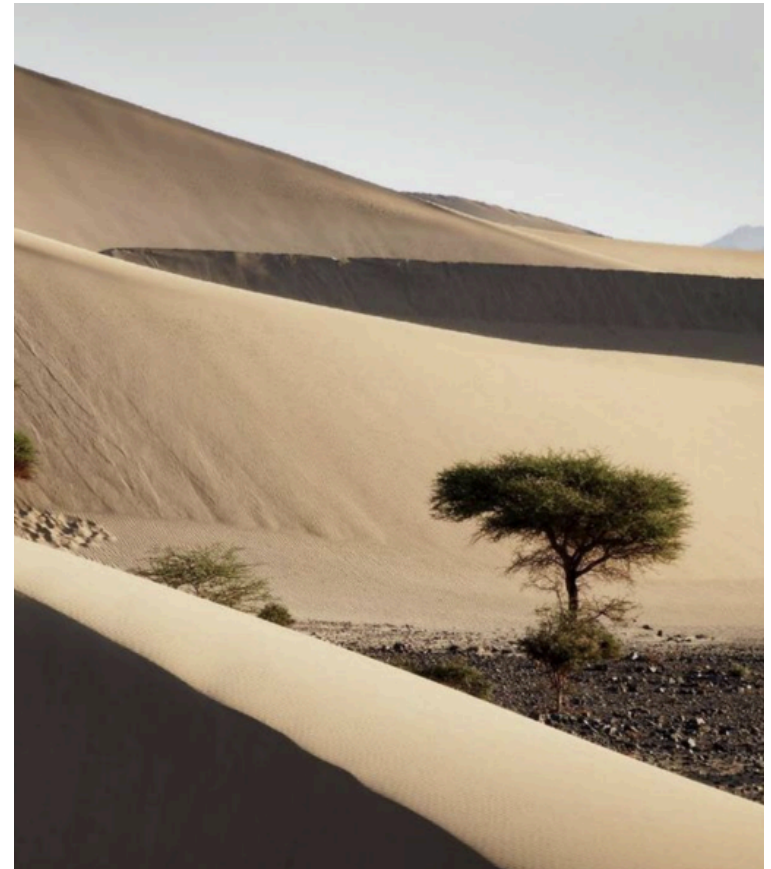

For those wishing to extend the journey, an additional night offers the opportunity to discover the Granary of Timliline.

“ Each place share the same elegance :
that of allowing the traveller to live the time and to leave with fragments of life
gathered along the way ...

The Acacia Camp

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Heading deeper into the Sahara, Acacia Camp unfolds around a magnificent acacia tree in a landscape where the desert seems endless (1.5 hours from Tizkmoudine).

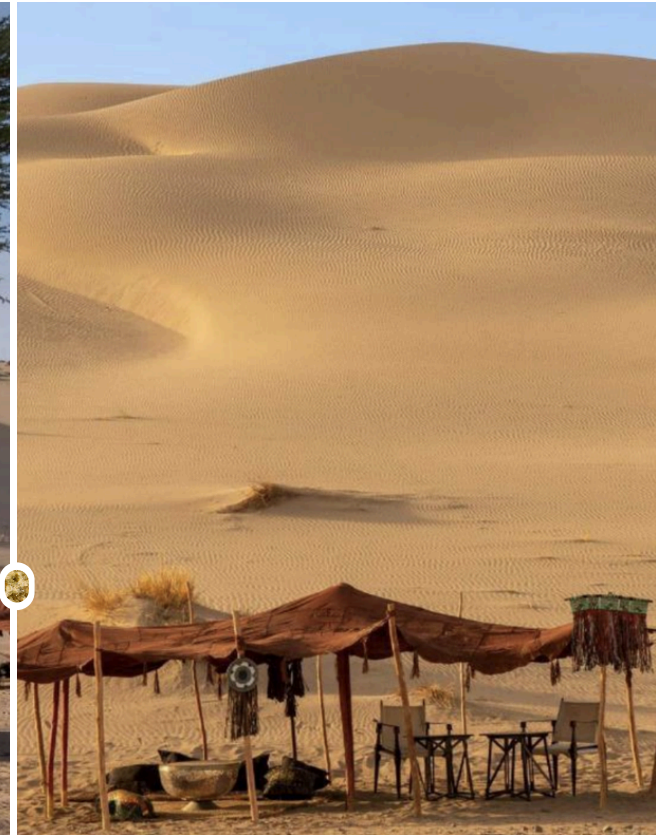

“ There was something in the air,
softer than the silence, that made
you want to speak more quietly ...

The Acacia Camp

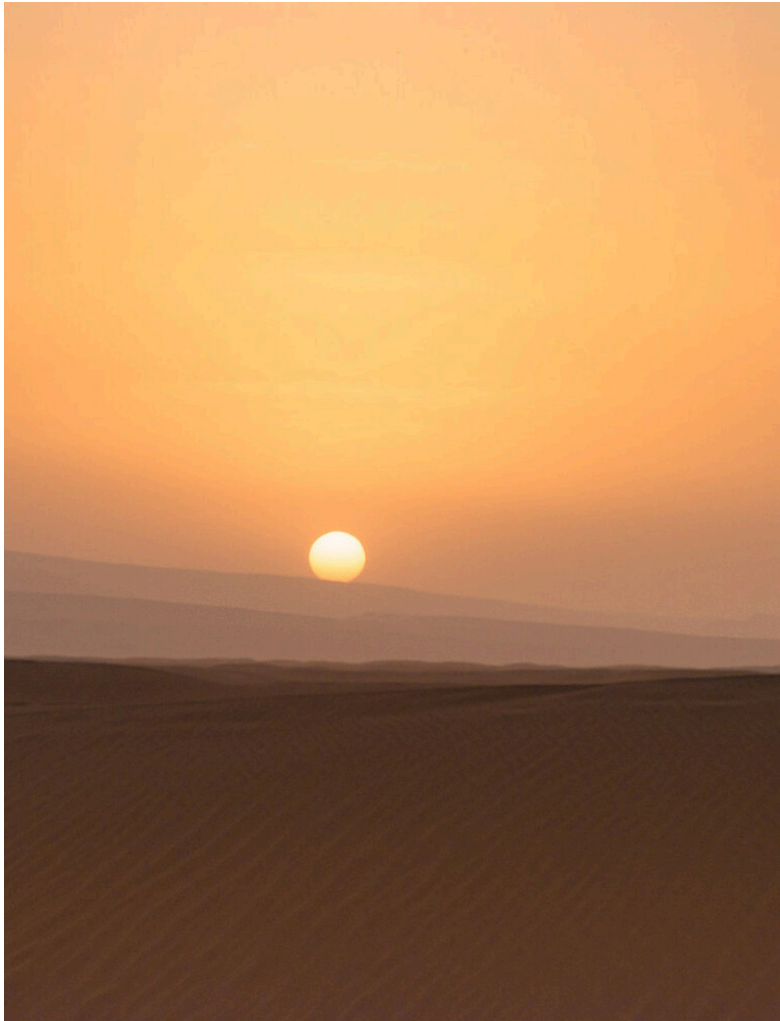

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Two traditional Mauritanian tents create an atmosphere of understated nomadic elegance, blending comfort with the spirit of adventure. Surrounded by dunes and silence, this secluded retreat offers an experience that feels both timeless and almost unreal.

The Acacia Camp

GLAMPING COLLECTION

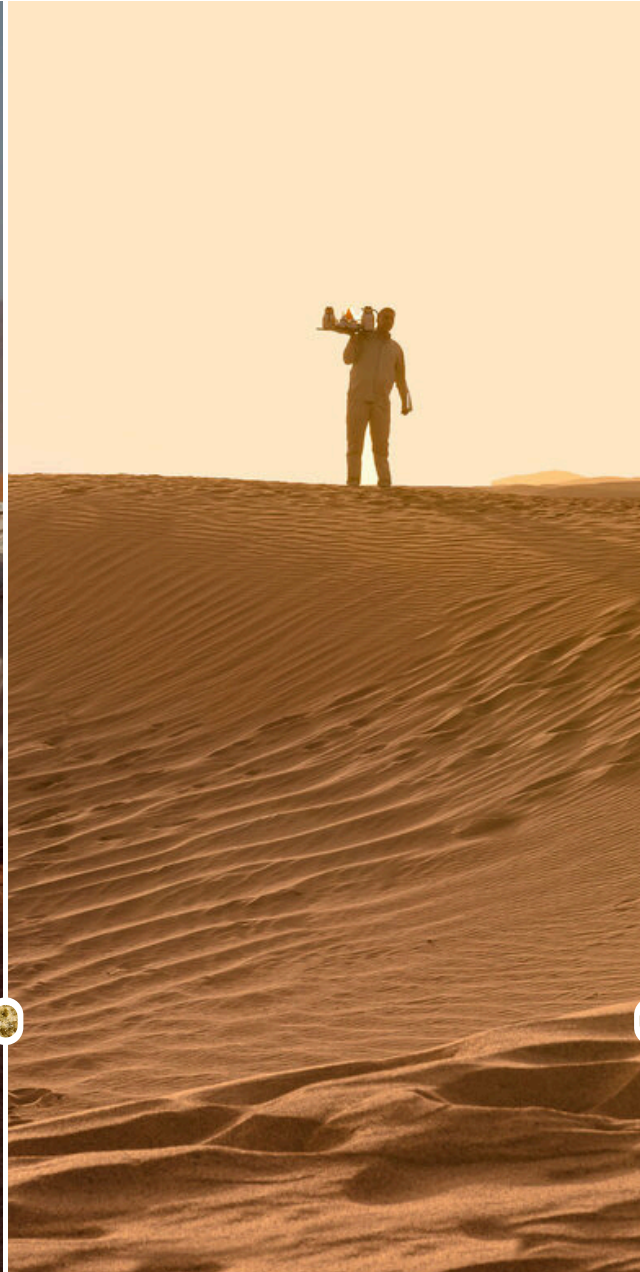

Feeling a different sense of time ...

The rhythm shifts once again as the journey enters the Sahara, where time seems to dissolve into the vastness of the landscape.

Discover cave paintings that quietly trace human presence in this region over 12,000 years ago.

As night falls, gather around the fire for an intimate evening accompanied by local musicians and stories carried through generations.

After watching the sun disappear beyond the dunes, settle beneath the desert sky for a dinner designed to linger in memory.

“ In the glow of the night, we could almost hear the stars ...

“ For a moment, it felt impossible that we had been invited to witness something so beautifully shaped by nature. ...

The Oasis House

GLAMPING COLLECTION

Inspired by Berber heritage and designed around local craftsmanship, L'Oasis offers a final retreat immersed in quiet beauty.

Moucharabiehs, cream coloured lounges, carved wood and precious fabrics shape interiors that feel both intimate and timeless. Set within adobe villas topped with Bedouin tents, this is a place to pause and embrace the final rhythm of the desert.

The Oasis House

GLAMPING COLLECTION

The Oasis House

GLAMPING COLLECTION

An invitation to slow down ...

Life moves differently at L'Oasis.

Take time to pause, recentre and enjoy moments shaped by calm, stillness and the surrounding landscape.

An invitation to disconnect from routine and reconnect with what truly matters.

“ In the heights, with nothing more than a cup of tea and the world unfolding before us, everything suddenly felt complete. ...

escalés
SIGNATURE

High jewellery of travel

— MOROCCO —

express its gratitude for the attention given to its craftsmanship.

